

College of Asia Pacific

CAP Online with University of Hawai'i August 10 ~ 21, 2021 (10-days intensive program)

About CAP

CAP is a collaborative education program among Japanese and international students based on PBL (Problem-Based Learning) and TBL (Team-Based Learning) provided by International Student Center at Kyushu University.

Eligibility

- ◆ Over 18 years of age.
- ◆ Have a strong academic record.
- ◆ Fluent in the English language for academic purposes
Non-native speaker of English must hold a TOEFL score of 460 or higher (or the equivalent).

Program Features

- ◆ Live sessions by University of Hawai'i's lecturers.
*Session topics for the past program (2021 Spring): Japanese American Historical and Contemporary Experiences in Hawai'i / The Constructions of Asians and Asia in American Cinema and more
- ◆ Live discussion forums with international students.

Program Period August 10 – 21, 2021 (10days)
*except Sunday and Monday (JST)

Program Fee Approx. JPY110,000
*subject to change due to exchange rate fluctuations.
The fee includes the Kyushu University tuition fee for 2 credits and program operation fee for University of Hawaii.

Participants Max.25

Application Zoom Language English

Registration Deadline June 9, 2021 (JST)

Contact

CAP Office, International Student Center, Kyushu University

✉ cap-isc@jimu.kyushu-u.ac.jp  <https://rcks.kyushu-u.ac.jp/cap/>

Apply here

 College of Asia Pacific

Search

