II. Jilin University and Changchun City

Jilin University (JLU) is a key comprehensive university under the direct jurisdiction of the Ministry of Education. It was founded in 1946 and selected as a “national-class university” in 2017. JLU offers a wide range of disciplines in 46 colleges or schools, covering 12 academic categories. Changchun City, in which JLU is located, is the capital of Jilin Province. Nicknamed “the spring city in North China”, Changchun is known as China’s “City of Movies”, “City of Automobiles”, “City of Forest”, and

“City of University”. With fresh air, agreeable weather and convenient transportation, Changchun is listed as one of China’s four “National Garden Cities”. It has been selected as one of “China’s Happiest Cities” for 9 consecutive years. December-January is the first choice for ice and snow experience.

By now JLU has built partnerships with 292 universities and researched institutes in 40 countries and regions. In 2018, JLU admitted 2,415 international students from 115 countries. Every year JLU runs short-term study programs and culture experience programs for different countries.
